

A2 – Basic

By the end of this course you will be able to talk about familiar subjects in routine situations. The scope of subjects will range from family and friends, to activities, education and qualification, as well as free time activities (i.e. hobbies) You will also be able to write short messages and letters in English without any problems.

- Getting to know people: basic conversations about family and free time activities (i.e. sports, television)
- Living in Europe: politics, cultural habits and differences
- Body and health: at the doctor's
- At work: job details (i.e. tasks, job descriptions), talking on the phone
- Traveling: route descriptions, asking for the way, understanding train and bus timetables, planning a trip
- Seasons: talking about the weather and the different seasons
- Letters: understanding and writing (short) letters
- The past: talking about past events